Portland, July 28.—There was a noticable increase in the number of chickens reduction in prices. Oregon egg shipments have fallen off the past two days owing to the hot weather and many of the eggs received are in bad shape. Fruits of all kinds are in demand and the prices continue stiff. Bran advanced 50c a ton yesterday, due to the increased demand from dairymen, and the fact that several flouring mills have closed down. A car load of banaras on ice was reexted yesterday and met with ready
